The classically elegant chronograph.

- Stainless steel case, polished
- Display of date, weekday and month
- Moon phase display
- Guilloché dial
- Blued hands and appliqués
- Pressure-resistant to 3 bar

Simply classic! Just classic? After all, this chronograph shows you the time in seconds, minutes, hours, weekdays, date and months. Furthermore, it indicates the phase of the moon and the phase of the day using a 24-hour display. The chronograph lets you calculate short periods and additional periods up to 12 hours with second accuracy.

Housed in a partially polished, partially satinized stainless steel case, these times can be read through a classic high-domed acrylic glass. The hands are painstakingly blued by hand. Of course, this watch is also water-resistant, shock-resistant und anti-magnetic in accordance with the DIN standards. In short: this elegant chronograph has everything you expect from a classic masterpiece by Sinn.
