Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung and Sinn Spezialuhren: these are two renowned companies of national importance, with reputations on an international scale, both of which have made Frankfurt am Main their homes since their formation. What could be more fitting than to combine the forces of the tradition-steeped daily newspaper and the manufacturer of high-quality mechanical timepieces to create a Frankfurt Financial District Watch? The result is the 6090 F.A.Z., a special edition limited to 100 pieces which impresses with its exclusive design. Boasting a matt silk finish, the dark blue dial of the mechanical watch with a self-winding mechanism is unique to the range of Financial District Watches and truly comes into its own with rhodium-plated appliqué. The transparent case back made of sapphire crystal glass reveals the rotor engraving which incorporates the F.A.Z. signet of the proverbial clever mind alongside the limited edition's number.

The 6090 F.A.Z. comes with a large date, which is particularly easy to read, and is encased in a rhodium-plated frame, which emphasises the date function with its intensive silvery gleam. The precision-based sophisticated function offering three time zones on a 12-hour basis helps to maintain focus and direction when exploring international terrain. Always be sure to make it on time, whether for your meeting with a correspondent in Washington or the close of the market in Tokyo. The Frankfurt Financial District Watch 6090 F.A.Z. represents the highest standards in product quality in an unique and elegant design.
